

Story 3: The Housewife Spy- Vocabulary

p14

- to offer s.g.
- a broken heart
- to fight for s.g./ s.b. / to fight against s.b./ s.g.
- to become interested in s.g.
- to travel towards a scary future/ to travel towards a future that...
- a spy

p15

- an aching heart (“Her heart ached...”)
- to lie to s.b. to lie about s.g. to lie for s.b.
- to pass money to s.b.
- to be caught by s.b. (passive)
- immediately
- s.b.’s only hope
- Winston Churchill

p16

- ”Get every piece of information from them. Do everything that is necessary”
- “When burning metal first touched her skin, Odette cried inside with pain.”
- to be cold (“The cold man...”)
- to pull out toenails
- to be proud
- to seem like
- a German officer
- complete hopelessness

p17

- to be selfish
- to be almost at an end (“The war was almost at an end.”)
- to go free
- to be a relative
- to fall into s.b.’s arms
- to give s.b. hope (“Your love gave me hope”)  s.b. = somebody (a person) , s.g. = something (a thing, an object, an idea)